

The Oxford Gun Company Opportunities

Due to our continued expansion, combined with one of our team soon to retire, The Oxford Gun Company have some exciting opportunities for experienced shooting instructors to join our ever growing team.

Our friendly, thriving, family-run business provides opportunities for varied coaching levels, we cater from complete novices and youngsters, right through to experienced all-round shots.

We are currently seeking to fill a number of roles:-

Senior Instructor

We are looking for a professional and experienced full time Senior Shooting Instructor with the ability to coach both clay and game shooting to a high standard, combined with the leading and mentoring of more junior staff and instructors, providing leadership for The Oxford Gun Company's instructor team.

This is a prime opportunity for either an Instructor with significant experience, who is ready to take their first Senior Instructor leadership role, or an existing Senior Instructor looking for another opportunity.

Instructor

We are looking for a full time Shooting Instructor to teach both clay and game shooting. This is a growth role for an existing instructor, or a junior instructor looking for a new more autonomous role.

There will be opportunities for development within this role, and for the coaching and hosting of visitors for events and lessons.

The ideal candidate will have experience of instructing, and be looking to bring this experience to the Oxford Gun Company team, growing their own coaching and teaching skills. Alternatively, a Junior Instructor with a number of years' experience, looking for a more autonomous role, may also be able to apply for this position.

Caddies and Corporate Instructors

We host a significant number of corporate days, with groups of varied experience. We are looking for instructors and caddies who can present an experienced and professional impression to our clients, looking after them on a caddied round, or on a corporate entertainment day, ensuring safe shooting and that the day is enjoyed by all.

Our vacancies are primarily at our Oxford Gun Company shooting grounds in Oakley, however some positions may also be available at our Bredon School shooting ground in Gloucestershire.

So, whatever your Instructing experience, if you've always wanted to join a fun, friendly and thriving business, please do get in touch.
